Where's Joe?

We all remember those childhood years filled with storytime, recess, kickball, and even the occasional trip to the school library. Out of the wall to wall choices, there is one book that many of us still remember. It had that special something about it, with the guy in that keen red and white shirt and the detailed pictures where you could sometimes find him. That's right, it's that classic book known as "Where's Waldo?" Here at Wa-Hi, the yearbook staff has adopted a Waldo of our own, and you know who we're talking about: he's the wild & crazy 2000-2001 ASB Vice-President, Joe Keown! So while you're perusing through the yearbook, keep your eyes peeled and dare to ask the question, "Where's Joe?"

O Waldos.

Joes.

What's up, Wa-Hi?

Steppin'

OUT

Steppin' out for lunch no longer means eating on the lawn in front of the commons. For some people, steppin' out means going to Safeway for lunch. Why go to Safeway? It has what students want:

Variety!

Why go to Safeway?

"I like it for the variety."

Cleo Peterson

"It's quick. The lines aren't as long."

Mariela Loera

Why not stay at Wa-Hi?

"It's a break from school."

Jon Avery

"No freshmen."

Chris Chilton

Do you have trouble getting back in time?

"Yes, there's not enough time."

Kelli Demory

"I usually make it back okay."

If our high school was a cartoon, what would the name be? What cartoon town would it be located in?

The name of the high school would be Sweet Onion Fumin' Wa-Hi, located in The Sweet Onion Patch.

The town would be Clique City and the school's name would be "Where Do You Belong?"

-Kaitlin Peick

The cartoon would be called "HAM." Why? Because I am unusually arrogant and I draw the cartoon "HAM." It would be set in the town of chaos in the state of confusion.

Junior quotes by Ashley Willis

thousand ONE

Fashions

Teens these days have been labeled as <Generation-D>. Experts might try to convince you that <D> stands for digital, but here at Wa-Hi, <D>

Of The

stands for <Darn original Dressers>. Just what do that mean? means that teens today think of the most amazing and creative fashions; teens today will pierce it, dye it, sew it & buy it all in the name of originality.

Video gamer Josh Griffith, 17, starts a business filling in for other gamers involved in an online roleplaying game called "Asheron's Call." Players are required to put in hours of game time to keep their online characters powerful. Busy executives pay Griffith up to $40 an hour to play for them.

After a record 3,545 wins and $81 million in earnings during her 19-year career, jockey Julie Krone becomes the first woman inducted into the National Racing Hall of Fame.

THE BOY FRIEND

2001 Wa-Hi Musical

Wa-Hi has always been known for the magnificent musicals it produces every year, and "The Boyfriend" was no exception. The cute and comical farce mimicking the musicals of the 1920s was entertaining for the young and old alike, featuring dancing, singing, and good old fashioned fun.

Happy Retirement

Where and when were your teaching assignments throughout your career?

1967-68 Middle school 7th grade Language Arts-Edwards Air Force base

1970-71 Walla Walla Community College

1970-2001 Walla Walla High School- Social Studies Department (U.S. History [off and on - 30 years],

Psychology [one year], Northwest History [1 semester], History of Western Civilization [2 or 3 years] and Current World Problems [20-25 years]).

What will you miss most about teaching?

The art of teaching a person; to think about something in a new way and watching young people grow as rational individuals and human beings is very important to me. I will miss you all.

What will you miss most about Walla Walla High School?

Other than the people, the beautiful campus especially the Yellow Hawk Creek and the breath-taking view of the mountains from A-13.

What are your plans after retirement?

After the last day of school, I plan on going to the coast with some close friends and family, ride my horses in the mountains and at the coast and maybe parade, garden and landscape, write, paint, sleep, work with stained glass, sleep, catch up on my sleep, travel, sleep, watch some favorite movies and sleep.

The rest - is open for change at any given minute or in other words, I'm planning not to plan. It took me 31 years, but I finally am graduating from high school. I think I will just relax and enjoy the freedom for awhile.

Tabitha Shereen

All Grown Up

To my darling daughter: The radiance of your love of life, and the love of God, has shown through you in all you do. Don't let anyone or anything dim that light! Don't settle for the ordinary or the average, that would be far too boring for someone such as yourself. Rather, look outside the norm, look for the big picture, then make it happen. Isaac Walton said "It is o.k. to daydream and build castles in the sky, so long as when you are done daydreaming you begin work on the castle!" For seventeen years your mother and I have tried to help you build a good foundation and a few underpinnings. Now, to and for the Glory of God, Live Big! Love ya, Dad

Tabitha I can't believe it's graduation day for you already! You have been a pure joy to grow with laugh with and love with. I am so proud of you and looking forward to watching your future unfold. I will always love and appreciate you Tabitha for your enthusiasm and encouragement you bring to our lives. Go after your dreams...sweetheart and when things become hard or overwhelming remember that pill that, you thought, was impossible for you to swallow. You can achieve anything! This is not the last dance! Love forever-Mom

Hey, Hey Sistah! I love you soooo much; and I still haven't accepted the fact that we won't be going to school together. I could never have asked for a better big sister. You will always be the one I look to for advice and some one to listen to my drama...you KNOW I've got your back no MATTER what you go through. I can't wait to see what happens to our family in the future. I don't have words of wisdom-maybe because I'm not wise-but, I can say...if ever in doubt: take it to God (HE ROCKS!)

Peace. ~Monica

From Delivery Room to Graduation, THANKS FOR MAKING YOUR UNCLE FEEL LOVED AND PROUD. LOVE YOU!!! SHERMAN.

Conspiracy of Hope

Conspiracy of Hope is a non-profit, student-run production that raises money for local charities, as well as showcasing the school's talent. This year they raised $2,500 and sold 485 tickets, a full house. Commissioners Jane Farrington, Crystal Robinson, and Mike Mettler presented the check to Laurie Klicker, the representative of this year's charity, Walla Walla Community Hospice.

Some Very Special Students of Walla Walla High School

Do you know these classmates? These students are a very active part of Walla Walla High School (Wa-Hi). Mrs. Blake, Mrs. Morris, and Mrs. Fonger help these students accomplish their desired goals. A large part of their education is a community-based instruction program. For example, on Wednesdays the students work on learning skills that will integrate them into community life. Thursdays all students go bowling and swimming. In class activities consist of arts, crafts, daily living skills, and prevocational skills. Three students work at the Walla Walla College cafeteria and one student works at the Veterans Association. These students really enjoy being a part of what Wa-Hi and Walla Walla have to offer. So, remember how lucky we are to have such wonderful students with which we share our school.
